Given at his Majeſty's Caſtle of Dublin, the Sixth Day of July, 1750.

By their Excellencies Command,

Tho. Waite.

GOD Save the KING.

Petersbourg, June 30. Before the Departure of her Imperial Majeſty for Peterſhoff, ſeveral Orders were ſigned for the Diſpoſition of the Forces of this Kingdom for the current Year, amongſt which a conſiderable Body of regular Forces are ordered to march into Livonia, in order to join the Forces already there.

Rome, July 3. On the 28th paſt the Pope, attended by about thirty Cardinals, and ſeveral Archbiſhops and Biſhops, went in a ſolemn Proceſſion to the Church of St. Peter, and heard Veſpers ſung to Muſick; and the next Day, being St. Peter's Day, the Pope officiated at high Maſs in his Pontifical Habit, after which he was carried under a Canopy to his Apartment in the Vatican, where he gave the Apoſtolick Benediction to an infinite Number of Perſons who were aſſembled together for that Purpoſe; that Night, and the next, the whole City was illuminated, and ſeveral fine Fireworks were played off. The Pope has appointed the Biſhop of Oſime to be Aſſiſtant to the Pontifical Throne.

Warſaw, July 4. Although ſeveral of the Dietines are broke up unſucceſsfully, as well in this Kingdom as in Lithuania, yet the greateſt Part of them have elected Deputies for the extraordinary Diet, which will be held here the 4th of next Month; and we hear that ſeveral of thoſe Deputies are already preparing to come hither accordingly. The Deputies from the Magiſtrates and Citizens of Dantzick are ſet out on their Return Home. We have received a Confirmation of the total Defeat of a conſiderable Body of Heyducks, who were returning Home with their Spoils, after they had committed the greateſt Outrages imaginable in the Ukraine; but we learn at the ſame Time, that M. Labiſzewsky, who commanded the Poliſh Troops that were ſent in Queſt of them, had the Misfortune to be killed in that Rencontre, together with ſeveral ſuperior Officers, and a great Number of Soldiers.

Dantzick, July 8. Preparations are already making here for the Reception of the King and Queen of Poland, who are expected ſoon after the holding of the extraordinary Diet. Their Majeſties propoſe ſtopping four or five Days in this City before they proceed to Dreſden. Some Days ago the Magiſtrates of this City received an Expreſs from Warſaw, by which they were ordered immediately to re-eſtabliſh the Citizens in their Prerogatives, conformable to what has been regulated by the King on that Subject, and to depoſe the two Counſellors who had been elected by them ſome Time ſince, which has been done accordingly. What other Differences may ſtill ſubſiſt between the Magiſtrates and Citizens of this City, will be adjuſted by his Majeſty during his Stay here.

Vienna, July 8. Their Imperial Majeſties are expected to arrive at Schonbrun this Evening or To-morrow Morning from Stiria. Advice has been received at Court, that the young Prince Emanuel of Lichtenſtein was married on the 5th Inſtant at Feldsberg, upon the Confines of Moravia, to the young Counteſs of Sternberg, Daughter to Count Sternberg, their Imperial Majeſty's Miniſter Plenipotentiary to the Court of Saxe.

Modena, July 8. The Duke our Sovereign, accompanied by his Conſort, the Hereditary Prince, and the whole Court, came on the 2d Inſtant from Rivalta to this City, in order to celebrate his Highneſs's Birth-Day, who then entred into the 53d Year of his Age. On this Occaſion Te Deum was ſung in the Cathedral Church, and a general Diſcharge was made of the Artillery, after which their Highneſſes received the Compliments of the Nobility and Gentry, and at Night returned to Rivalta.

Berlin, July 14. The King, who has been for ſome Time paſt at Sans Souci, one of his Summer Palaces, drinking the Mineral Waters of Egra, having left off the ſame, is returned to Potzdam, from whence his Majeſty is expected here.

here To-morrow or next Day, in order to give Audience to ſome foreign Miniſters.

Bruſſels, July 19. On Thurſday laſt we had in this City and its Neighbourhood, ſo violent a Storm of Hail, Rain, and Wind, that the like has not happened in the Memory of Man; it laſted about half an Hour, during which it did a ſurprizing deal of Damage, not only to the Houſes and Windows, but alſo to the Fields and Gardens, many of which look moſt dreadfully.

Hague, July 21. M. Hop, the States General's Envoy at the Britiſh Court, ſet out two Days ago for Hanover. Meſſ. De Larrey and Marcelis are expected here immediately from Paris; they have been ordered Home, to lay before the States an Account of the Progreſs of their Negociations with the French Miniſters, for the Renewal of the Treaty of Commerce of the Year 1739. Every Thing neceſſary having been ſettled for the intended Expedition to Surinam, it is generally expected that the firſt Embarkation will take Place very ſhortly.
